

Radiography, AAS

The Radiography associate degree program prepares graduates to a skilled healthcare professional who uses radiation to produce images of the human body.

Graduates can work in hospitals, urgent care centers, clinics, physicians' offices, government agencies, and imaging centers.

Radiography, AAS | A45700

- Credits required for a degree: 71
- Demonstrate competence in technology
- Demonstrate critical thinking skills
- Model professionalism and communication skills

Admission Requirements

- GTCC general admission
- College readiness in English and Math
- Biology competency
- Completion of program information session
- Complete the ATI TEAS with a minimum score of 66

Program Costs*

- In-state tuition and fees: $5,886
- Out-of-state tuition and fees: $20,896
- Books and supplies: $3,349

*The amounts shown above are an estimate and can vary from program to program.

GTCC's associate degree program in Radiography is accredited by the Joint Committee on Education in Radiologic Technology (JRCERT).

Interested? Have questions?

Contact Dr. Donna Wright at dlwright3@gtcc.edu or visit gtcc.edu/limitedentry.