JAN. 30 IS DEADLINE FOR DATATEL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS

JAMESTOWN – The Datatel Scholars Foundation in Fairfax, VA, will accept applications for scholarships until 5 p.m. on Jan. 30, according to Barbara Maynard of Guilford Technical Community College.

Maynard, assistant director of financial aid at the college, said the foundation said students can apply for at least one of three scholarships. Scholarships are valued from $1,000 to $2,400.

Students attending at least six credit hours are eligible to apply, and can be at any academic level and with any major, she said. This tax-exempt foundation awards scholarships to undergraduate and graduate students. Since its establishment in 1990, the foundation has awarded 3,700 scholarships totaling more than $5.5 million.

The three scholarships available are”

- Datatel Scholars Foundation scholarships are awarded to outstanding students attending Datatel client institutions.
- Angel fire scholarships honor military personnel who have served in the United States military during periods of combat.
- Russ Griffin Memorial scholarships provide assistance to current students who have returned to higher education after an absence of five years or more.
