

Office of Marketing and Public Information
Bob Burchette 336-334-4822, Ext. 2566
Coretta Montague 336-334-4822, Ext. 2487

Guilford Technical Community College
Jamestown, N. C. 27282

Contact: ROBurchette@gtcc.edu
(Released 11/11/09)

GTCC TO OBSERVE INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK

JAMESTOWN -- International Awareness (Education) Week will be observed at Guilford Technical Community College's Jamestown campus Nov. 16-20.

The International Students' Association, the Diversity Committee and the Internationalizing the Curriculum Committee have joined forces to plan a series of presentations.

There are 636 students enrolled at GTCC from outside of the United States, representing 102 countries, according to Laura Altizer of the college's Institutional Research and Planning Department.

Faculty members are being encouraged to take a few minutes in class to do an activity with an international theme.

Scheduled events:

Monday, Nov. 16:

- Alumni Panel, noon-1:30 p.m., Medlin Campus Center-190, (Medlin Level 1).
- International Entertainment, 6-8 p.m., Sears Applied Technologies Building Auditorium.

Tuesday, Nov. 17:

- Religion Panel, noon-2:30 p.m., Medlin Campus Center-190 (Medlin Level 1)

Wednesday, Nov. 18:

- Fashion Show, 11 a.m.-12:45 p.m., Medlin Cafeteria.
- Speaker, Dr. Douglas Butler, "Bhutan: The Last Buddhist Kingdom," noon-2:30 p.m., Koury Auditorium.

Thursday, Nov. 19:

- Third Thursday Theatre: "Boats out of Watermelon Rinds" (from Turkey), noon-2 p.m., Sears Applied Technologies Building Auditorium.

Friday, Nov. 20:

- Oud and choombush music, David Lambert, 11:30 a.m.-noon, front of the Learning Resource Center.
- "View from Sudan," GTCC students David Majak and Peter Ngor, noon – 1 p.m., third floor, Learning Resource Center.

Ongoing:

- Middle East Display, Dr. Carol Schmid, Learning Resource Center.

###