GUILFORD TECHNICAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE
SCHEDULES PRESS CONFERENCE FOR MAY 29

GREENSBORO – Guilford Technical Community College will hold a press conference at 9:30 a.m. Friday, May 29, at the offices of the Piedmont Triad Partnership to provide information about the role of GTCC and other educational institutions in the new Piedmont Triad Center for Global Logistics.

The press conference will be in suite 304 at 7025 Albert Pick Road, Greensboro, NC.

GTCC's new Northwest Campus on Highway 68 will be the location for the Piedmont Triad Center for Global Logistics.

The center will be one of the components of a regional initiative to make the Piedmont Triad the leading center for global logistics on the East Coast.

Jim Morgan, will introduce the press conference on behalf of the Piedmont Triad Partnership. Dave Congdon, President and CEO of Old Dominion Freight Lines will discuss the Aerotropolis concept and Dr. Don Cameron, President of Guilford Technical Community College, will address the mission of the Piedmont Triad Global Logistics Center. Tentatively scheduled to discuss their institutional participation in the Center are Dr. Mary Rittling, President of Davidson County Community College, Dr. Gary Green, President of Forsyth Technical Community College and Dr. Keith Debbage, UNCG Professor of Geography.

After leaders in this initiative speak, a question and answer session will be held for participating media.
