SEVERAL SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE AT GTCC

JAMESTOWN – Among the ways students can gain financial help at Guilford Technical Community College is to qualify for one of the many scholarships available, according to Lisa Koretoff, director of financial aid at the college.

Among the scholarships available are:

- Allen Ryan Todd Scholarships – Two scholarships are available, each valued at $1,661. To qualify a student must be seeking an associate degree at any North Carolina community college, and reside in what are considered “low wealth” counties such as Caswell, Davidson, Randolph, Stokes and Surry. Guilford County residents aren’t eligible.

Deadline for application to the GTCC Enrollment Services Office in Jamestown is Sept. 15. Other qualifications are available from the college.

- George W. Ballard Memorial Scholarship – One grant worth a maximum of 90 percent of fulltime tuition, excluding books and fees will be provided. Applicants must be eligible for in-state tuition, and be enrolled or must intend to enroll in the air conditioning, heating and refrigeration curriculum at a North Carolina community college.
- John S. Clark Co. Scholarship – Ten scholarships available for $500 each, with five going to students who graduated from high school in the spring of 2008, and five going to non-traditional adult students returning to school. Applicants must be fulltime students majoring in curriculum related to the construction industry. Examples of acceptable majors are air conditioning, heating and refrigeration technology; architectural technology; carpentry; computer engineering; electrical/electronics technology; electrical engineering technology; heavy equipment and transportation technology; industrial systems technology; interior design; mechanical engineering technology; plumbing; and welding.
- Wachovia Technical Scholarship – An annual $500 scholarship available for a fulltime student enrolled in the second year of a two-year educational/technical program, Student must demonstrate financial need and scholastic promise. Application deadline is Sept. 15.
