YOUNG GTCC WOMEN'S TEAM CLAIMS BIGGEST VICTORY

JAMESTOWN – Guilford Technical Community College's Lady Titans, a first-year team, will be facing another major contest Wednesday when tackling defending Region X champion Spartanburg Methodist College in Spartanburg.

The 5:30 p.m. contest comes on the heels of the young GTCC's team's biggest victory.

The Lady Titans are coming off a 61-60 win over nationally 12th ranked and previously undefeated Louisburg Junior College last Saturday (Jan. 10). GTCC had trailed by 19 points on their home court in the first half before Temere Williams of Fayetteville sank a free throw with no time left on the clock and sealed the victory.

The Lady Titans have a 9-3 overall record and a 3-0 mark in conference play.

Williams led the scoring in the upset of Louisburg with 17 points. GTCC had balanced scoring with Teshymia Tillman of High Point getting 15 points and Maya Holt of Garner following with 10 and Laura Beeson of High Point with 10.

This is the first year in the history of GTCC that the college has had a women's basketball team
