PROGRAM MISSION

Pathways courses are focused on helping students gain the necessary skills in order to find meaningful career or volunteer opportunities upon course graduation. Additionally included in the coursework is communication and quantitative reasoning to enhance personal development and serve as a conduit for technical skills. The goal of our program is to bridge the gap and create opportunities for employers to hire and build unique positions for adults with IDD that will give them opportunities to succeed in a chosen career field. POWER Pathways courses are offered on the GTCC Greensboro and High Point campuses and are currently one semester in length.
