

Cosmetology Instructor Training Certificate Program

Fall 2023 Entry ♦ Jamestown Campus

Program Applications will be accepted
Monday, February 27, 2023 — Friday, June 16, 2023 by 5pm.

Applications may be accepted after the deadline only if space is still available.

Classes begin in August 2023.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION:

The Cosmetology Instructor Certificate (C55160) is required by any licensed Cosmetology professional who wishes to teach in the Cosmetology field. Graduates of the program may be employed as cosmetology instructors in public or private education institutions.

The state approved curriculum provides a course of study for learning the skills needed to teach the theory and practice of cosmetology as required by the North Carolina Board of Cosmetic Arts.

Course work includes the requirements for becoming an instructor, introduction to teaching theory, methods and aids, practice teaching, and development of evaluation instruments. These subjects are covered in four (4) required courses, and study is allowed to begin only in the Fall semester of each academic year. The program is fully approved by the N.C. State Board of Cosmetic Arts, and graduates should qualify to sit for the State Board of Cosmetic Arts examination.

The Instructor Training Cosmetology program is a limited entry program beginning in the fall semester. It is offered on the Jamestown campus in the Service Careers Building. Approximately 20 students are admitted each fall semester.

All applicants must meet the minimum admissions requirements to be considered for a space in the program and must be a High School/GED graduate. Meeting the minimum admissions requirements does not guarantee admission to the program.

Where are the Cosmetology Program Classes Held?

All classes, labs, and salons are held in the Cosmetology Classroom, 2nd Floor of the Service Careers Building (Jamestown Campus). The Service Careers Building is #26 on the GTCC Campus Map.

Please enter the building from the back side (facing Rochelle Road), as the front access is now closed.

PROGRAM OUTCOMES:

Upon completion of the Cosmetology Instructor Training Certificate, the graduate should be able to:

- Evaluate basic and advanced cosmetology instructional concepts.
- Apply theories of education as they relate to adult learners in a cosmetology classroom.
- Develop lesson plans for both theory and laboratory concepts.
- Create activities to assess student performances in a classroom setting.
- Evaluate classroom management skills within an entry-level and advanced level cosmetology laboratory setting.
- Demonstrate applicable salon services to entry-level and advanced level cosmetology students.
- Provide constructive feedback to entry-level and advanced level cosmetology students.
- Assess entry-level and advanced level student performance in a salon setting.

TECHNICAL STANDARDS OF PROGRAMS:

While helping students develop technical skills, the department values communication and interpersonal skills, service to the college and community, and diversity among students and patrons.

All students will be held to the same standards and must be able to perform essential functions with or without reasonable accommodations.

If you have a disability that may affect your performance and are seeking accommodations, it is your responsibility to inform disability Access Services as soon as possible. It is important to request accommodations early enough to give disability Access Services adequate time to consider your request and recommend reasonable accommodations. Instructors will provide necessary accommodations based on the recommendations of disability Access Services.

EMPLOYMENT OUTLOOK:

(Source:) (Salary.com).

The average Cosmetology Instructor salary in North Carolina is $40,374 as of May 2023, and the range typically falls between $36,461. and $46,353. Salary ranges vary widely depending on the city and many other important factors.

SUBMITTING YOUR PROGRAM APPLICATION: NEW PROCESS

Once you have completed all items in Steps 1,2, and 3 on page 3, you are ready to submit the Cosmetology Instructor Training Program Application. Applications will be submitted electronically via the following link from February 27 – June 16, 2023: Cosmetology Instructor Training Program Application Fall 2023 You must have an activated Titan account to access the application.

Eligible applicants will be considered, based on the date their Cosmetology Instructor Training Admission Application is received by the Limited Entry Programs Office. Priority consideration is given to those who are “first-time” applicants. “First-time” applicants are those who have never been previously accepted to or enrolled in the GTCC Cosmetology Instructor Training Program.

Applications received after 5:00pm on Friday, June 16, 2023 will be considered ONLY if spaces remain available.

SELECTION AND NOTIFICATION PROCESS

Approximately one to two weeks after the application deadline, all those who submitted the Cosmetology Instructor Training Program Application will have been notified of their admission status via a letter sent to their GTCC EMAIL. If spaces remain after the deadline, additional applications will be accepted and reviewed for admission to the program.

Selected applicants must either accept or decline a program position by returning their Intent to Enroll Form within 5 calendar days of the date on the acceptance letter. Failure to submit the Intent to Enroll Form within the stated timeframe will result in the position being offered to an alternate. Once an applicant declines a space in the program, the decision may not be reversed.

All applicants who are not offered a space in the program (including alternates) must resubmit an application to be considered for a future program entry and must meet the minimum admission requirements for that program.

REQUIRED ATTENDANCE AT ORIENTATION PRIOR TO THE START OF CLASSES

Once a position in the Cosmetology Instructor program is accepted, the student is then required to attend an orientation scheduled prior to the start of classes. Failure to attend may result in the space being offered to an alternate.
